

Thursday, June 12, 2014

CONGRATULATIONS and welcome to The Juilliard School community! By now you should be well into your arrangements for arrival to “The Big Apple”, however, I am sure you have questions. I would like to share some additional information to assist you over the summer and when you arrive to School in August.

Starting on today, June 12, 2014 and continuing on July 2 and August 4, you will be receiving a monthly email New Student Orientation (NSO) Checklist (see below for the first one) via your juilliard.edu email account from the Office of Student Affairs (osa@juilliard.edu). It is very important that you read and follow the instructions detailed in the checklist to stay on track with your summer requirements.

On July 2, 2014, you will receive an email from Canvas (the Juilliard Learning Management System [LMS]) stating that you have been enrolled in a class and inviting you to participate in the Juilliard Online New Student Orientation (JONSO). Completion of the JONSO is required for class registration and will provide you with critical information concerning your transition process to New York and The Juilliard School. The JONSO will assist you getting familiar with academics and student services prior to your on-campus Orientation program in August. Below is some basic information about August dates and times.

Friday, August 22nd at 9:00 a.m.:

- New International Student Check-In with the Office of International Advisement, at the Meredith Willson Residence;
- New International Student Move-In, for residential students, at the Meredith Willson Residence Hall;
- New International NSO Program continues on August 23 – 24, 2014 and then international students will join the rest of the new students for the remainder of NSO programs through September 3, 2014.

Sunday, August 24th at 9:00 a.m. - Noon:

- New Domestic Students living in the residence hall will Check-In and Move-In to the Meredith Willson Residence Hall.

Sunday, August 24th at 1:00 p.m. – 2:00 p.m.:

- Commuter Student Check-in located in the Morse Student Lounge in The Juilliard School building.

Sunday, August 24th at 3:30 p.m. – 4:30 p.m.:

- Welcome Reception for all new students and parents/guardians in Peter J. Sharp Theater Lobby.

Monday, August 25th at 10:00 a.m.:

- Official Welcome by President Joseph Polisi for all new students and parents/guardians in Peter J. Sharp Theater.

Monday, August 25th through Wednesday, September 3, 2014:

- NSO continues for all new students and concludes with the Juilliard Convocation and Community Picnic.

Thursday, September 4th:

- Classes begin – YAY!

All students should consult the main NSO webpage at www.juilliard.edu/welcome-juilliard for other important information associated with the New Student Orientation, including a detailed schedule for the NSO program. Furthermore, you will be asked to access your WebAdvisor platform to update your information and invite you parents/guardians to access a special account for them on WebAdvisor; you will be asked to decide the level of access you want to authorize for your parents, if any. Please read the access level descriptions on WebAdvisor and the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) information that outlines your rights to privacy of education records.

This year's New Student Orientation theme is Capture the Moment! Your time here will go by fast so take a moment to enjoy the time connecting with your peers, faculty, and staff in the Juilliard community.

To help prepare for your arrival here are some things you need do:

CHECKLIST #1: DETAILS/DESCRIPTIONS

1. Check your Juilliard.edu email.

You will be receiving emails including but not limited to: dates and times you can move-in, placement assessment preparation documents, information from the Dance, Drama, and Music divisions throughout the summer to your Juilliard email so it's critical that you make sure you're able to access your account. If you are not able to access your Juilliard email please email Information Technology at helpdesk@juilliard.edu

2. Bookmark the Orientation website.

The Orientation website will continue to be updated with information throughout the summer. Make it a habit to check it at least a couple of times a week to stay up to date with information.

3. Check out the Undergraduate or Graduate Orientation brochure.

The Orientation brochure has information such as: important dates, Residence Hall Student move-in, Orientation check-in, orientation highlights.

4. Complete the Health Services immunization paperwork.

You will need a medical provider to complete part of the form. Once completed attach the Health Record Form due on or before July 31 and mail to:
The Juilliard School

Health and Counseling Services
60 Lincoln Center Plaza
New York, NY 10023
U.S.A.

5. If you are on Facebook, we invite you to “Like” our fan page and join the Orientation 2014 event.

By “Liking” our fan page you’ll be connected with your fellow incoming students as well as your Orientation Leaders! They are a great resource for your transition into the school and the city. Please direct general questions to the Facebook event, so that everyone may benefit from the answer.

6. Check your Juilliard email for your housing assignment (first time college students).

You will receive an email from the Office of Residence Life (ORL) regarding your housing assignment in late June/early July. Please also take the time to contact your roommate to discuss the items each of you are bringing to campus.

7. International students please email your flight information to the Office of International Advisement.

8. Memorize your Juilliard Student Identification (ID) Number.

Please provide your student identification number on all information and correspondences provided to the Juilliard School. This will ensure your documents are properly accounted for and processed.

Please also make sure to use your Juilliard Student ID number when you complete your JONSO.

Have you crossed everything off this list? If so, then you’re on your way to capture the moment!

We expect your education at The Juilliard School will be challenging, stimulating, enjoyable, and rewarding. We challenge you to explore new opportunities here (or create your own!) and take advantage of the many programs and services we offer to maximize your education both in and out of the classroom. If you need help or have questions, please don’t hesitate to contact the Office of Student Affairs at osa@juilliard.edu or at 212-799-5000 ext. 200. If you have Residence Hall specific questions, please email reslife@juilliard.edu. Please note that school hours during the summer are Monday-Thursday from 9am-5pm EST.

Warm welcomes from the Office of Student Affairs and look for another email from us July 2!

Best,

Jennifer M. Awe, Ed.D.
Dean of Student Affairs